Dear Valued Customer,

With great pride and excitement, we announce that our laboratory, CWM Environmental has acquired Pottsville Environmental Testing Laboratory in Pottsville, Pennsylvania. We express gratitude to the staff at Pottsville Environmental Testing Laboratory in their cooperative efforts to assist us with the transition in becoming a CWM Environmental site, with the goal of further improving the quality of water and enhancing the environment.

CWM Environmental has been in the business of water management for over three decades providing our clients with dependable data along with unmatched service. With our locations in Cleveland and the greater Pittsburgh area, we at CWM Environmental are thrilled to add the Pottsville location to our team.

At CWM, we will continue to work with both our old and new clients by providing the highest level of service in all our sectors. Welcome clients and employees of Pottsville Environmental Testing Laboratory. We are excited to see what the future has in store for all of us.

Thank you,
from all of us here at CWM Environmental
